

How to find the bed and breakfast "Pensão Francisca" in Almagreira, Santa Maria, Azores

From the airport take the road to Vila do Porto, at the roundabout with the small fancy house you take the second exit leading into the town of Vila do Porto. In town you will come to another roundabout/crossing, choose the main street up the hill leading out of town. Stay on the street, you will pass the fire station to your right, then the only two gas stations on this island. At the next beautifully arranged roundabout take the first exit. This road leads to Almagreira. The road passes the valley Val Verde, after coming up the slope stay left on the main road. Soon you will pass the two speed bumps at the school of Almagreira. Further to your left is the "Café Stop II", at the next junction the street to your right leads to Praia Formosa and the bed and breakfast "Pensão Francisca".

Opposite the junction on the left there is a big old green painted gate with a beautiful archway made from stone. Turn right and follow the narrow street leading south towards the beach "Praia Formosa".

After approx. 400 m to your left, passing a big field, you have arrived at our bed and breakfast "Pensão Francisca".
